CRIME.

Crookedness in the Construction of New York Central Railroad Piers.

RAILROAD CROOKEDNESS. New York, Dec. 10.—There have been several deviations in the construction of the New York Central Railroad piers on the Hudson River from the routine established by law, and in other ways. Two piers were constructed it is said without obtaining the consent of the commissioners of the sinking fund, and the plans have now been submitted to the commissioners as if for piers to be built. It is also stated that the company obtained undue advantages in the length, width and angle of these piers and in the cost of the lease of the land under water.

GRANT GETS WET.

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 10.—Rain has been falling for the past eighteen hours and the streets are in a bad condition, but notwithstanding this a great crowd of people lined the route of the procession for hours before the arrival of the train bearing Grant and escort. It was nearly 3 o'clock when the loud cheers of the mass and, the indicated that the distinguished party had arrived at the depot. The procession in waiting then moved to the court house in the following order:

TAKEN IN HAND.

Mounted police under Col. Weatherford, Capt. Bullitt's cavalry.

Infantry, including the Louisville Legion and the visiting companies.

Committee of arrangements in carriages.

Other guests with carriages in carriages.

Committee of reception in carriages.

City officers in carriages.

Capt. Mays's artillery.

Music.

Delegation from New Albany.

Delegation from Jeffersonville.

Citizens of Louisville.

The route was up Main to Third, Third to Jefferson, Jefferson to grand stand in front of the court house. The decorations along the line were superb, composed of flags, mottoes and arches. On the arrival at the stand the party reached it with difficulty.

After the cheering by the gathered thousands had subsided, Mayor Baxter, on behalf of the city, said:

MAYOR BAXTER'S WELCOME. Fellow citizens—We are pleased and gratified to welcome to our city one of the most distinguished men of our age. After filling the highest civil and military offices known to our laws with honor and ability to himself and country, returning from office and becoming a private citizen, he made a tour of foreign lands, where he received by crowned heads and people as no American had ever been before; this was because he was an American citizen and had held with us the highest offices in our country, the highest offices in our country, the highest offices in our country, the highest offices in our country.

His first post on the Pacific shore, there has been one grand ovation given him by every city, town and hamlet that he has visited up to the present time; yet, he has received genuine heartfelt welcome from all people, without regard to party or past issues. Now, Gen. Grant, here at the very gateway of the south, in the metropolis of Kentucky, we welcome you, not only as Kentuckians, but as American citizens, loving our country, its constitution and its laws. Fellow citizens, I have the pleasure in introducing to you our honored guest, Gen. Grant.

Here again there were loud cheers for the city's honored guest. The welcome on behalf of the state was extended by Gov. Blackburn as follows:

GOV. BLACKBURN'S SPEECH. Gen. Grant—Your visit to our state and this city is the occasion of much gratification to our people; I regret that from the nature of your previous engagements that you will not be permitted to visit those portions of the state of which we Kentuckians feel so justly proud. Were you enabled to do so I feel assured that you would concur in the opinion of other distinguished travelers, who have proclaimed it the "Eden of the world." I indulge in the hope, however, that on some future occasion, when your time will be more at your disposal you will again honor us with a visit. In such an event I promise you in advance a most cordial welcome. We make no pretence, General to vie with the imposing and gorgeous receptions which greeted you in almost every nation and clime on your brilliant tour around the world. We have been gratified to recognize the honor paid you as a soldier and one who has already filled many a page in your country's history, and to know that you have achieved these results whilst nurtured under the dome of that temple of liberty, constructed by and cemented with the blood of our revolutionary sires. It is a republic like ours it is but natural that the entire population should share in the success or triumphs of any one of her citizens. And now, general, in conclusion, allow me, as the chief executive of this state, to extend to you a hearty welcome to the soil of Kentucky.

GEN. GRANT'S RESPONSE. was brief, and similar to those uttered on like occasions elsewhere.

The procession re-formed and marched to the Louisville Hotel, where Gen. Grant receives during the afternoon as follows: General council, 3 p. m.; school board, 3:10; American veterans, 3:20; ex-soldiers, 3:30; citizens, 3:40; colored citizens, 3:50.

At 5 o'clock Gen. Grant will dine at Mr. Henry Watterson's. A private reception will be given Mrs. Grant at Mrs. D.P. Fauld's and Mrs. Shreve's, from 4 to 6 o'clock.

There will be an illumination of Main street from 8 to 10 o'clock p. m., during which time Gen. and Mrs. Grant will pass from the Louisville Hotel to the Gault House. At 11 p. m. Gen. and Mrs. Grant will receive in the parlors of the Gault House.

At Hobart College, near Rochester, N. Y., a young man named Hutchinson attempted suicide Monday by leaving the gas turned on in his room. He was found in time to save his life. It is supposed that he is insane.

Details of the Late Terrible Floods in Hungary.

HUNGARY.

TERRIBLE FLOODS.

Pesth, Dec. 10.—The destruction of the dams on nearly all principal rivers in Hungary and Transylvania, and terrible inundations are again filling the public mind with anxiety. But for the intense cold—ranging from 15 to 20 degrees—Rezsener, Grosswarden and several villages around the city would have shared the fate of Tegyediu, Temesvar Arad and several towns in Transylvania, and in Gromwarden a number of houses fell in. So suddenly came the flood that hardly any preventive measures had been taken and great damage to property is reported, but no loss of life. Continuance of frost can alone prevent the most serious disaster.

ALEXANDER'S ANXIETY.

London, Dec. 10.—The Eastern Budget, organ of the Austrian embassy here, says:

We hear from Sofia that Prince Alexander of Bulgaria is still growing more unpopular, and that serious apprehensions are felt for the safety of his throne. It is becoming evident that the constitution is not workable and the country is threatened with anarchy.

GERMANY.

PURCHASE OF RAILROADS.

Berlin, Dec. 10.—The lower house of the landtag has adopted by a vote of 236 to 155, the clauses of the bill empowering the government to purchase the Berlin and Stettin, Magdeburg and Holzerstadt, Hanover and Altonbrecken, and Cologne and Meiden Railways. The dissenters were the clericals, progressivists and Poles. The government has promised to introduce at the present or next session of the landtag, bills providing for guarantees stipulated by the railroad committee.

The governor of Massawah has received a letter from Gordon Pasha, governor-general of South Egypt, announcing that he will probably arrive in Massawah to-day.

The Novoe Vremya, of St. Petersburg, states that the governor of that city has ordered every householder to display a red lamp before his door nightly, bearing the number of the house.

Another number of the new revolutionary journal, The Will of the People, has been distributed in St. Petersburg and other parts of Russia. This number was printed subsequent to the recent court martial, and contains comments on the trial of the nihilist Musky.

A well-informed correspondent of the National Zeitung says he thinks the Russian imperial council, which was to have been held yesterday under the presidency of the emperor, was summoned not so much to consider the question of peace or war as how best to retire from the present diplomatic attitude of aggression, an explosion calculated to shatter the whole organization of the state. The last war proved that foreign enterprises do not pay, and the peril involved in a passive position of society to the present system of government. The peril is greater than from the desperate conspiracies of nihilists.

Condensed Telegrams.

The United States district court at this place will open on next Tuesday, when Judge Gresham will be present to preside. There are at present three cases filed, and as soon as the attorneys see what arrangements will be made for return days a number of cases will be transferred from Indianapolis to this court. Judge Gresham says he will give the attorneys here all the facilities in his power, but he wants to establish his court rules first.

No stock on the Pittsburgh to-day.

Forty emigrants went west on the Pittsburgh to-day.

A Close Out.

A traveling man, whose name could not be learned, came near being run over at the south depot this afternoon. He was talking to a Grand Rapids conductor at the time and was standing rather close to the track when the Grand Rapids train came in. Some one yelled at him, and hearing it, instead of moving away he stepped right on the track. A bystander grasped him and jerked him off the track, when the engine was not over ten feet from him.

No democrat can reach the white house by stepping on the political corpse of Mr. TILDEN. Talk about conciliating the 70,000 men of at least very doubtful characters who traitor-ously defied the decision of the party convention and bolted Gov. ROBIN-SON! Would it not be better to pay some regard to the 600,000 tried and true men who loyally stood by the ticket? No, no; Mr. TILDEN may consent to be sacrificed, but without his consent the feat will be one of funeral meats." Mr. BLACK is a personal and political giant, and his words are a stinging rebuke to the democratic pigmies who think they can build up the fortunes of the party by throwing mud at the great leader of 1876.

STATE POLITICS.

The Michigan City Dispatch thinks that Seymour and Hendricks would sound well for 1880.

The Michigan City Dispatch says:

"The Fort Wayne SENTINEL wants Senator Voorhees to drop his financial question and go to work for the democratic party."

Peru Republican:

John Sherman will not boom as a presidential candidate in the west. He should have been willing to let well enough alone. The people want a rest on the financial question.

The Evansville Courier says:

Senator Bayard is the democratic captain of the money power, and it may be safely predicted that he will not be on the democratic ticket for president.

The Ligonier Banner says:

Tom Evans says ex-Gov. Joel Parker, of

New Jersey, would be a splendid candidate for the presidency. Tom's head is level, and he could carry New York, New Jersey and Indiana. He ought to be drafted.

The Bluffton Banner says:

It is now asserted upon the authority of Mr. Hendricks that he would consent to fill the second place if Seymour be placed at the head. It is much easier to get Hendricks's consent than Seymour's. A decision is the next thing in order.

The Laporte Argus says:

The democratic talk of running Gen.

James R. Black for congress in the "Hunter" district would not be a very wise selection. The way Judge Black writes his name would look well standing before the "M. C." on the patent office reports.

Indianapolis Journal:

The New Albany Ledger-Standard wants

the next democratic convention held anywhere but in Indiana. It is of the slightest possible consequence to the city whether the convention of other parties is held here or not, but no person should be so foolish as to suppose that it is by far the most convenient and comfortable place to hold them.

The Laporte Argus says:

The Indianapolis Democrat mentions the following democratic candidates for governor: Fowler, of Owen county; Mier, of Monroe; Taylor, of Daviess; and Burck, of Brown. These men are all from the southern and central parts of the state. Now let the boys from the north stand up and be counted. We can think of a number that would do better.

The Plainfield Democrat says:

Gen. Shufeldt, of Evansville, and

Gen. Morton C. Hunter, just now seem to be more prominently mentioned, and are the only acknowledged candidates for nomination for governor on the republican ticket. Capt. Holstein, deputy United States district attorney at Indianapolis,

$1,000,000 per acre is an exclusive privilege of millionaires.

Monignor Kirby has resigned the office of rector of the Irish College at Rome, which he has held for many years, and will be elevated to the College of Cardinals. He will be one of the prelates in attendance on the pope to advise on Irish ecclesiastical affairs, and will be succeeded in the rectorship of the Irish College by

Canon Verdon, a nephew of Cardinal

Some twelve years ago Mr. George

MacLean, of the village of Walden, was physically disabled through paralysis. His mental powers have remained sound, and since that time he has passed the long years in reading.

In the twelve years he has read the bible entirely through forty times, and the testament and Psalms through 142 times. His wife, who is 70 years old, vouches for this statement. Mr.

MacLean is about 80 years old.

The amiable and sporting empress of Austria does not visit Ireland for the hunting season this year. She is at present staying at her Hungarian cottage of Godollo, where her chief occupation is her riding school and her horses. The riding school is of vast extent and splendidly fitted up, ornamented with looking glasses, and accommodated with comfortable galleries for the spectators. A riding master from Kren's Circus is engaged, and when the empress is not taking riding exercise herself, nothing amuses her more than to see novices taking their first lessons.

The Right Hon. J. A. Roebuck, whose death has just been announced,

was very small in stature, with a singularly large head and a pale, eager face. He spoke very slowly, and his style was keen and incisive. On his first return in the reform parliament of 1832—he was one of the three in the present house of commons who sat in that parliament—he took place among the half dozen best speakers in the house. Some thirty years since he had a severe paralytic shock, and never wholly recovered the use of his speech or limbs. For a few years he was permitted to speak sitting.

Pick, the celebrated Berlin detective, who performed wonderful feats in the way of ferreting out ingenious criminals, has just died. He commenced his public career as burgomaster of Pöddschow, a small town on the Oder, which office he exchanged for commissary of criminal police, some six and twenty years ago. It was he, who broke up the band of mal-factors who were the terror of Pomeran in 1850. He joined the band himself, aided them in committing several overt acts of treason, and enabled himself to identify them when they were netted by a force of gendearmerie.

AMUSEMENTS.

ACROSS THE CONTINENT.

This great dramatic success will be presented by the renowned actor, Oliver Doud Byron, and his double company at the Academy next Monday evening. There should be a large attendance. The sale of seats will begin Friday morning at Geo. S. Fowler's.

JOHN DILLON.

John Dillon, Chicago's old favorite, and the best low comedian on the American stage, will appear at the Academy next Tuesday evening in his great popular dramatic success, "Our Next President."

The Cincinnati Enquirer says: Mr. John Dillon, the comedian, made his first appearance in Cincinnati last evening at Heuck's Opera House, supported by two other comedians. The new play, entitled "Our Next President," was so well received that the audience was so large that the play had to be postponed. We are sorry we have not the space to spare that the star, the company and the play deserve. Of the piece itself much that is good might be said. The plot is of decided interest, and the fun and pathos interspersed so well together all through the play that the latter part, especially, the audience is changing from smiles to tears almost constantly. Mr. Dillon is a comedian who copies up or no copy. He is essentially funny, and after seeing him we do not wonder at his great popularity in Chicago and the west. Last night he kept the audience in a constant state of merriment, and in the interval which he took part. His support is way above the average. Miss Louise Dillon is a most vivacious little actress, and had a most successful scene in her scene before she was through with her first scene. Mr. John Blaisdell, as Alfred Huxford, appeared to excellent advantage, and his scene in the act or more than ordinary ability. The remainder of the cast are, one and all, deserving of mention. The play is put on the stage in a manner that would do it to any theater in the country, and much superior to any thing ever before attempted in this theater. The sets in the first, third and fourth acts are especially fine. The scenery was painted by Mr. D. H. Hughes and shows him a thorough artist in the scenic line. This combination should and will, no doubt, receive a fine patronage this week. They in every way deserve it.

Around the World with Gen. Grant.

The only book of authority on the travels of Gen. Grant, by John Russell Young, who accompanied him on his invitation, and by permission of James Gordon Bennett, of the New York Herald. It is a work which we recommend to all our readers as being the only authoritative and reliable work, non-partisan and of no political significance, but a faithful record of the eventful tour, embracing descriptions of England, Ireland, Scotland, France, Germany, Italy, Russia, Norway, Sweden, Spain, India, Japan, China, etc. Also, interviews with crowned heads, royalty, and the leading minds of the eastern continent. The work has over 800 plates, 1,300 pages, and is undoubtedly the most complete illustrated book of travels ever produced.

As there have been other spurious editions of the above title by different publishers, John Russell Young has issued the following letter, setting forth the authenticity of the work.

New York, Oct. 23, 1879.—Clark McChesney, Esq., Dear Sir: The only narrative of Gen. Grant's tour of what I have any knowledge of where I took an interest in that tour in consequence of publication by the American News Company. Of this narrative I am the author, as I was the companion of Gen. Grant in his journey. It naturally follows that I am the only one who could write of them from personal observation.

It is probable that other publications are compiled from some letters of mine written to the New York Herald.

The book issued by the American News Company is a work of mine, and is essentially a new work with special interest.

Yours truly, JOHN RUSSELL YOUNG.

A BIG SCHEME.

Talk of Establishing an Immense Furniture Factory in This City.

A Good Opening for a Large Institution.

The SENTINEL is reliably informed on good authority that a scheme is now on foot to organize in this city a company for the purpose of establishing a manufactory of furniture.

Three well known capitalists of Fort Wayne have already pledged $3,000, $5,000 and $3,000 severally for the nucleus of a capital to be created, making already $11,000, which can be obtained on call.

What is wanted now is a little encouragement from the city. The city is in possession of the "city park," (why so called is an unexplained conundrum) which is very likely to remain in its present state of worthlessness for many years, unless improved by outside parties. If the city would donate to this prospective company sufficient ground for the erection of their works, the ultimate establishment of this much needed enterprise would be assured beyond the question of a doubt.

The need of an establishment of this kind is felt by every furniture dealer in this section of the country. Hoffman Brothers, manufacturers of furniture stock of all kinds, and by the way, one of the largest firms of the kind in the west, ship most all their stock to eastern cities where it is finished, and then in turn Fort Wayne's own furniture dealers go into the eastern markets and buy back the very same stock which was originally cut out in our own city.

Connersville, a small city of probably about 2,500 inhabitants, has a factory of this kind and ships a large amount of its stock to Fort Wayne.

There is no necessity for anything of this kind. Fort Wayne has ample facilities for the most complete manufactory of furniture, and should embrace the opportunity and establish one at once.

The men at the head of the enterprise have ample means to carry out the project and have the business capacity to make it a successful venture, and if the city will give them any encouragement whatever, the Fort Wayne Furniture Manufacturing Company will be an institution of the near future.

BAWDS AND BUMMERS.

Suckers and Sinners, Hoodlums and Hummers.

Were Out in Force at Police Court This Morning.

Several of the bad bad girls and some slightly bad boys called on Acting Mayor Ryan this morning.

Henry Bowser and Aug. Corneille, together with Minnie Harrod, Mary VanDolah and Aggie Brown were the crowd, and their shy glances at Ryan, made him feel rather shy for a few moments, but he soon recovered and asked what was the matter. The officers explained that they had found the party mixed up in rather inharmonious confusion and thought they ought to tell about it to the judge.

August explained his side of the case to the satisfaction of the court and he was discharged, but Henry couldn't fix his side of the matter up and he was taxed $10.

The girls had very little to say only that if they had their wings with them they could prove that they were angels of the first water. The painful absence of the wings cost them $24 in a lump.

John Berry. Unfortunately John was out yesterday and was up again to-day. Yesterday he paid $6 for his being drunk and to-day he went over $6 worth.

The court then adjourned in Faith, Hope and Charity.

The McHales.

The McHale Literary Society gave a literary and musical entertainment at Library Hall last evening before a large audience. The following was the programme:

Piano duet—Misses Katie McDougal and Mollie Sommers.

Essay—Robert DeWald.

Song—Mr. Welber.

Piano Solo—Miss Katie McDougal.

Speech—William Crow.

Trio—Miss Drier and Misses Sommers and Beller.

Song—Miss Little Pink.

Trio—Misses Sommers, McDonald and Skelly.

Duet—Mrs. Arnold and Mr. Hartemper.

Debate—Messrs. McDonald, Allegan, Kane and McMillan. Judges—Charles F. Lape, Hugh Hogan and Matt. Bassett.

Memorial—Rev. Father Hartnett.

The entertainment was a success in every respect, a full and detailed account of which will be printed in Saturday's society column.

Fliegener.

Ferdinand Fliegener, the furniture dealer, has made a new move. He has secured the rooms in Miner Block, formerly occupied by C. A. Saunders, and the adjoining rooms, and will shortly remove his large stock of furniture to that place, where he will on the 18th inst. open one of the largest stocks of furniture ever brought to this city. The SENTINEL is pleased to see the enterprise manifested in this department, and hopes that he will make an eminent success of the new undertaking. He will occupy two large store rooms on three floors, and possessing an admirable position will doubtless do a large business.

Thanks.

To the Editor of the SENTINEL:

At a regular meeting of Amity Lodge No. 121, held at their hall, Tuesday evening, December 9th, 1879, a resolution was unanimously adopted, tendering a vote of thanks to Messrs. McDougal, Thomas, Rieley and Aber, for the excellent music rendered at the social on Thursday evening, the 4th inst., which added greatly to the pleasure of our guests.

BULLY BOYS.

They Had a Good Time at Indianapolis Yesterday.

Talking Over the Old War Days With Comrades.

The delegation which left this city for Indianapolis on Monday were a joyous crew. The prospect of meeting a number of their old companions of the bloody days of the civil war lightened their hearts and refreshed their memories, and "Sherman's March" and a number of old war songs were sung to enliven their spirits, and the time was pleasantly passed in relating reminiscences of by-gone days. Upon the arrival of the train at Indianapolis the "boys" sought their "quarters," and prepared themselves by rest for the coming day.

The next day old companions were hunted up. The general was welcomed with all the pomp and bombast required by the programme, and notwithstanding that during a part of the day the rain came down in torrents. No one has yet been heard to express a feeling of regret at having visited the capital yesterday. A large number of the delegates returned last night, but quite a number remained over for to-day. The only unpleasant feature of the visit was the temporary illness of F. P. Boltz, who fainted on the street. He was promptly carried to bed, and in a short time was on his feet again and will return with the balance of the boys to-night.

Supt. Hillebrand made an attempt to visit some schools last week, but the condition of the roads forced him to give it up.

Deputy Cosgrove was out serving subpoenas this morning. One man whom he tried to serve has been dead about a year.

Marsh Wines, one of Fort Wayne's old boys is in the city spending a few days with relatives and friends. Mr. Wines has been for the past nine years a resident of Washington, where he still lives.

Out of over 69,740 people questioned on the subject by a SENTINEL reporter to day, all but one agreed that it was muddy, and that one was crazy, and thought he was walking the streets of the New Jerusalem.

The opera "Chimes of Normandy" will shortly be produced in this city for the benefit of Trinity Episcopal Church, under the direction of Prof. Wellenstein. Mrs. Evers and other talented artists will participate.

The representatives of the American News Company, of New York City, Mr. W. H. Jones and Mr. Perry Cotnam, are stopping for a few days at the Mayor House, getting subscribers for the "Travels of Gen. Grant Around the World," by John Russell Young. We refer to the work in another column.

AMUSEMENTS.

ACROSS THE CONTINENT.

This great dramatic success will be presented by the renowned actor, Oliver Doud Byron, and his double company at the Academy next Monday evening. There should be a large attendance. The sale of seats will begin Friday morning at Geo. S. Fowler's.

JOHN DILLON.

John Dillon, Chicago's old favorite, and the best low comedian on the American stage, will appear at the Academy next Tuesday evening in his great popular dramatic success, "Our Next President."

The Cincinnati Enquirer says:

Mr. John Dillon, the comedian, made his first appearance in Cincinnati last evening at the Grand Opera House, supported by his own company, in the latest new play, entitled "Our Next President." We are sorry we have not the space to spare that the star, the company and the piece deserve. Of the piece itself much that is good may be said. The plot is above the average. Miss Louise Dillon is a most vivacious little actress, and had every one in the house laughing at her first scene. Mr. John Russell Young, appeared to excellent advantage, and proved himself an actor of more than ordinary ability. The remainder of the cast are, one and all, deserving of mention. The play is put on the stage in a manner that would do credit to any theater in the country, and much superior to any thing ever before attempted in this theater. The sets in the first, third and last acts were wonderfully good. The scenery was painted by Mr. D. B. Hughes and shows like a thorough artist in the scenic line. This combination should and will, no doubt, receive a fine patronage this week. They in every way deserve it.

Around the World with Gen. Grant.

The only book of authority on the travels of Gen. Grant, by John Russell Young, who accompanied him on his expedition, and by permission of James Gordon Bennett, of the New York Herald. It is a work which we recommend to all our readers as being the only authoritative and reliable work, non-partisan and of no political significance, but a faithful record of the eventful tour, embracing descriptions of England, Ireland, Scotland, France, Germany, Italy, Russia, Norway, Sweden, Spain, India, Japan, China, etc. Also interviews with crowned heads, royalty, and the leading minds of the eastern continent. The work has over 800 plates, 1,300 pages, and is undoubtedly the most complete illustrated book of travels ever produced.

As there have been other spurious editions of the above title by different publishers, John Russell Young has issued the following letter, setting forth the authenticity of the work.

Very Respected Sir: The only narrative of Gen. Grant's tour, of what I have any knowledge of, which I take an interest in that now in course of publication by the American News Company. Of this edition I have written the preface, and it naturally follows that I am the only one who could write from personal observation.

It is quite probable that other publications are compiled from some letters of mine written to the New York Herald.

The book issued by the American News Company is another affair, it is essentially a new work with special interest.

Yours truly, JOHN RUSSELL YOUNG.

A BIG SCHEME.

Talk of Establishing an Immense Furniture Factory in This City.

A Good Opening for a Large Institution.

The SENTINEL is reliably informed on good authority that a scheme is now on foot to organize in this city a company for the purpose of establishing a manufactory of furniture.

Three well known capitalists of Fort Wayne have already pledged $3,000, $5,000 and $3,000 severally for the nucleus of a capital to be created, making already $11,000, which can be obtained on call.

What is wanted now is a little encouragement from the city. The city is in possession of the "city park," (why so called is an unexplained conundrum) which is very likely to remain in its present state of wilderness for many years, unless improved by outside parties. If the city would donate to this prospective company sufficient ground for the erection of their works, the ultimate establishment of this much needed enterprise would be assured beyond the question of a doubt.

The need of an establishment of this kind is felt by every furniture dealer in this section of the country. Hoffman Brothers, manufacturers of furniture stock of all kinds, and by the way, one of the largest firms of the kind in the west, ship most all their stock to eastern cities where it is finished, and then in turn Fort Wayne's own furniture dealers go into the eastern markets and buy back the very same stock which was originally cut out in our own city.

Connersville, a small city of probably about 2,500 inhabitants, has a factory of this kind and ships a large amount of its stock to Fort Wayne.

There is no necessity for anything of this kind. Fort Wayne has ample facilities for the most complete manufactory of furniture, and should embrace the opportunity and establish one at once.

The men at the head of the enterprise have ample means to carry out the project and have the business capacity to make it a successful venture, and if the city will give them any encouragement whatever, the Fort Wayne Furniture Manufactory Company will be an institution of the near future.

BAWDS AND BUMMERS.

Suckers and Sinners, Hoodlums and Hummers,

Were Out in Force at Police Court This Morning.

Several of the bad bad girls and some slightly bad boys called on Acting Mayor Ryan this morning.

Henry Bowser and Aug. Corneille, together with Minnie Harrod, Mary VanDolah and Aggie Brown were the crowd, and their shy glances at Ryan, made him feel rather shy for a few moments, but he soon recovered and asked what was the matter. The officers explained that they had found the party mixed up in rather inharmonious confusion and thought they ought to tell about it to the judge.

August explained his side of the case and the satisfaction of the court and he was discharged, but Henry couldn't fix his side of the matter up and he was taxed $10.

The girls had very little to say only that if they had their wings they would be angels of the first water. The painful absence of the wings cost them $24 in a lump.

John Berry. Unfortunately John was up yesterday and was up again to-day. Yesterday he paid $6 for his being drunk and to-day he went over $6 drunk.

The court then adjourned in Faith, Hope and Charity.

Flegner.

Ferdinand Flegner, the furniture dealer, has made a new move. He has secured the rooms in Miner Block, formerly occupied by C. A. Saunders, and the adjoining rooms, and will shortly remove his large stock of furniture to that place, where he will on the 18th inst. open one of the largest stocks of furniture ever brought to this city. The SENTINEL is pleased to see the enterprise manifested in this departure, and hopes that he will make an eminent success of the new undertaking. He will occupy two large store rooms on three floors, and possessing an admirable position will doubtless do a large business.

Thanks.

BULLY BOYS.

They Had a Good Time at Indianapolis Yesterday.

Talking Over the Old War Days With Comrades.

The delegation which left this city for Indianapolis on Monday were a joyous crew. The prospect of meeting a number of their old companions of the bloody days of the civil war lightened their hearts and refreshed their memories, and "Sherman's March" and a number of old war songs were sung to enliven their spirits, and the time was pleasantly passed in relating reminiscences of bygone days. Upon the arrival of the train at Indianapolis the "boys" sought their "quarters," and prepared themselves by rest for the coming day.

The next day old companions were hunted up. The general was welcomed with all the pomp and bombast required by the programme, and notwithstanding that during a part of the day the rain came down in torrents. No one has yet been heard to express a feeling of regret at having visited the capital yesterday. A large number of the delegates returned last night, but quite a number remained over for to-day. The only unpleasant feature of the visit was the temporary illness of F. F. Boltz, who fainted on the street. He was promptly cared for, and in a short time was on his feet again and will return with the balance of the boys to-night.
